THE COMMENCEMENT

NATIONAL AIR

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and wild war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

INVOCATION . The Reverend Amos Williams Patten, D.D.

MOTETTE—"Creation's Hymn" Beethoven

CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

HYMN—America

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

BENEDICTION

HONORARY DEGREES

Doctor of Laws—Joseph Ralph Harker

A wise and far-seeing administrator; for twenty-five years President of Illinois Woman's College; influential in educational counsels of the State; recognized as a leader and a judicial adviser in matters of polity and procedure in both Church and State.

Presented by Dean James Alton James

Doctor of Music—David Stanley Smith

Professor of Music in Yale University; an organist of rare accomplishments; composer of symphonic, chamber, and church music; author of the "Rhapsody of St. Bernard" rendered at the Tenth Annual North Shore Festival; a scholar attested by membership in the National Institute of Arts and Letters.

Presented by Dean Peter Christian Lutkin

Doctor of Science—William Clarence Braisted

Surgeon General of the United States Navy; Fellow of the American College of Surgeons; decorated by the Emperor of Japan and by the President of Venezuela for eminent service; a scientist who has brought his knowledge to bear on the welfare of mankind and especially of the United States Navy; has placed the Medical and Surgical service of the Navy on a high plane of efficiency; has represented his government abroad on important missions and performed the duties imposed by his high office with discrimination and wisdom.

Presented by Dean Arthur Isaac Kendall

Doctor of Divinity—Francis John McConnell

A thoughtful and discriminating student of philosophy and theology, who has helped greatly to enlighten his fellows on the problems of our civilization; who has given voice to the central motives and interests of our national life; and who, as thinker, educator, and Church leader, has shown a way in the perplexities of the new religious thinking and in the bewilderments of the new democracy.

Presented by President Charles Macauley Stuart

Doctor of Laws—Walter Leaf

Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, Doctor of Letters of Cambridge University; Doctor of Letters, Oxford University; Harris Lecturer of Northwestern University; formerly Chairman of London Chamber of Commerce, now Chairman of London County and Westminster Bank; author of many and varied works of learned research; eminent alike in finance and scholarship; one of the chief supporters of the war for freedom, and at the same time one of the most productive investigators in the realm of history and letters.

Presented by Professor John Adams Scott
